Kristie

Well it's been a fun year. I really had a lot of fun in Geography with you this year. We (Tim, Chanze, Rick & Me) wouldn't have know what to do this year if we didn't have you to pick on and you to pick on us. Your a great person & I hope you stay just the way you are. I hope we get more than just one class together next year, If not we'll have to get a schedual change HuR. Hope I see ya some this summer.

P.S. Thanks for all your help in English - love Shane Skarke

kristie

It was fun in English this year with you in the class. Geog. was fun to. I hope we have as many good times next year. I Hope you had a good year and good things happen to you.

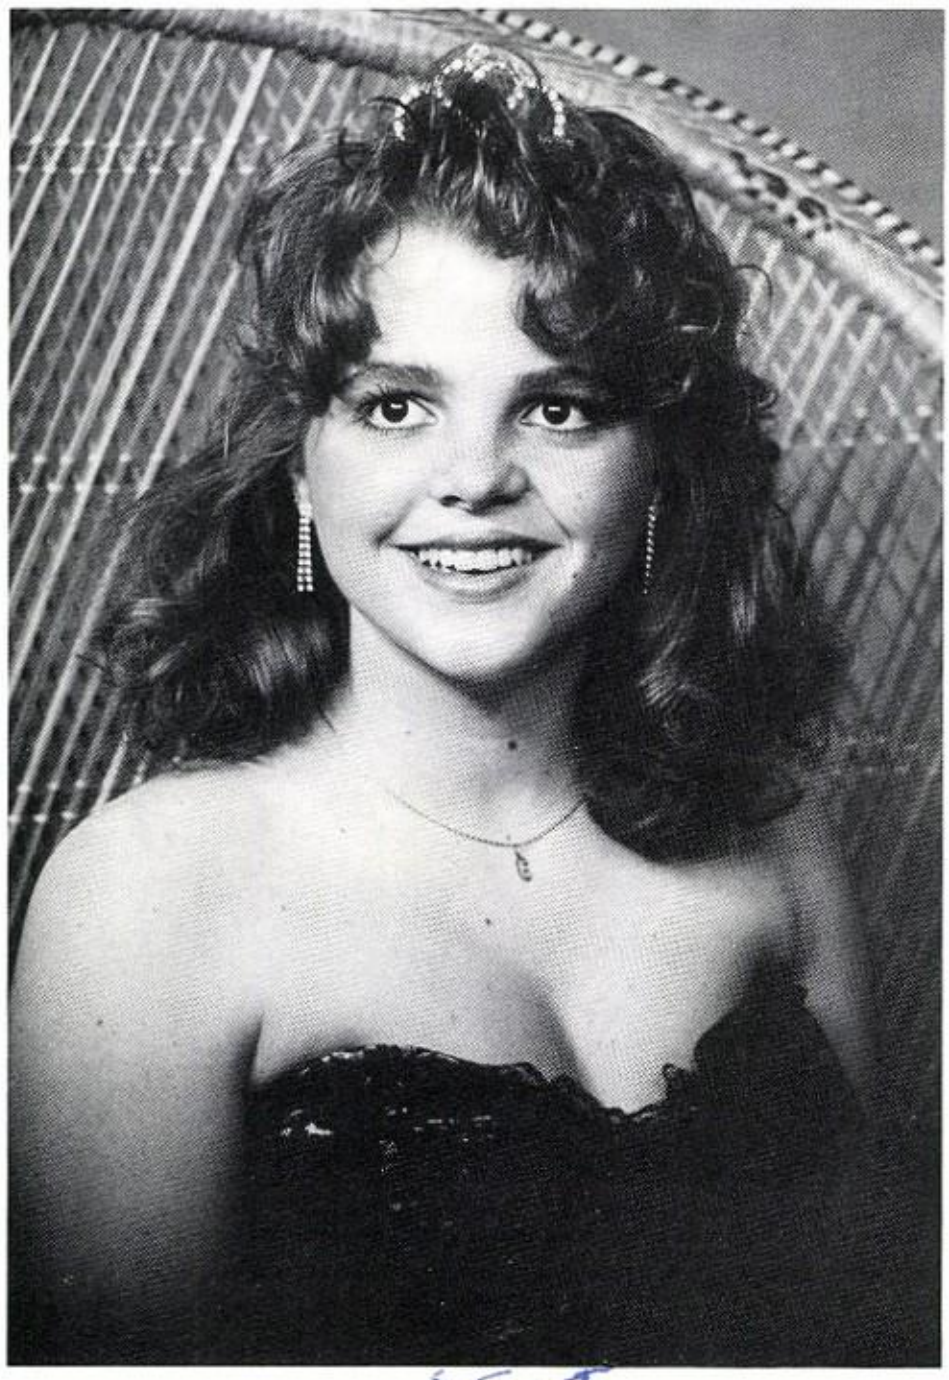
FOOTBALL QUEEN

Susan Estes

At the Candlelight Pep Rally on October 16, 1986, Susan Estes was named as the 1986 Football Queen. She was selected by the members of the varsity football team. Other nominees included seniors Cherie McRoberts and Misty Knebusch.



HOMECOMING

Cathy Hildebrand

Cathy Hildebrand was elected Canyon High School 1986 Homecoming Queen. Performing is Cathy's favorite thing, for she enjoys acting, working out, singing, dancing . . . in other words, being in front of a crowd! Cathy believes in honesty, communication, and respect for others in all human relationships, plus at least twelve hugs a day! This is Cathy's philosophy and the one she strives to live; Cathy follows her rainbow!

The 1986 Homecoming Court consisted of Lesa Svensson, Susan Estes, and Cherie McRoberts. All of these girls were very actively involved in many school related activities. Lesa was president of the senior class, a member of the Student Council, FTA, FHA, National Honor Society, as well as a cheerleader. Susan served CHS as a cheerleader her sophomore year, but traded her megaphone for a basketball and is a member of the girl's varsity basketball team. She has also been a member of the Student Council for two years. Cherie is vice-president of the Student Council, head varsity cheerleader, and a member of the National Honor Society.

The Canyon Eagles, lead by head coach Mike Wartes, finished off an almost perfect season 8-2. Placing the third best mark in ıe district, the Eagles were unable to clinch a district play-off berth as those places were taken by Hereford and Estacado.

The Eagles started off the season with an impressive 5-0 mark which has not been seen by Eagle fans in over 14 years. The agles finished the second half of the season 3-2 finishing up 8-2 for the season.

The "Board" and "Base" of the Show Choir!!

The young and talented people that make up the Canyon Show Choir entertain many groups and organizations in Canyon and in other neighboring towns. They even made a wake-up call for Z-93. These fun and fancy performers are a flashy group to watch as they have many different medleys of songs and choreographies. They are the "Powerhouse" of CHS and one "Just Can't Get Enough" of the Canyon Show Choir!!

Auto Mechanics is a two year program for junior and senior students. The students learn safety procedures, machine and equipment operation, testing and diagnostic methods for six systems including computer systems and basic auto repair. They later cover the rest of auto engines, transmissions, rear axels, and alignment. At the completion of the program, students who wish to enter the field of auto mechanics are placed on a job. Some students go on to specialize in specific auto repairs at a technical school. Mr. Mickey Hathaway teaches Auto Mechanics.

The Building Trades class is responsible for building a custom-designed house and handling materials in excess of $70,000. When a student has completed building trades, he is ready for entry level construction work.

DRAMA CLUB

Drama Club "caught the wave" with various parties and dances. According to the students, "Drama Club celebrates!" The officers for Drama Club are: President, Clay Jackson; Vice President, Cathy Hildebrand; Secretary, Guin Cole; Treasurer, Melody Morgan; Scrapbook, Ginger Sauer; Sophomore representative, Stacie Artho; Junior representative, Tanya Montgomery; Senior representative, Ryan Holt; and Social chairman, Heather Thompson. Most of the members get involved with various plays that are presented throughout the year. If the members are not seen on stage, they can be found helping with the lights, the sets, or the celebration when the play is over.

The plays for the 1986-1987 school were the musical, "Grease", the all-school play, "The Curious Savage", and a melodrama. The sponsor for Drama Club is the drama teacher, Dave Yirak. According to Mr. Yirak, "They (the students) are really a dedicated bunch." The plays are considered an extracurricular activity; therefore, the students put in work on Saturday, just to present the best possible production. With all the hard work involved, no wonder Drama Club celebrates!

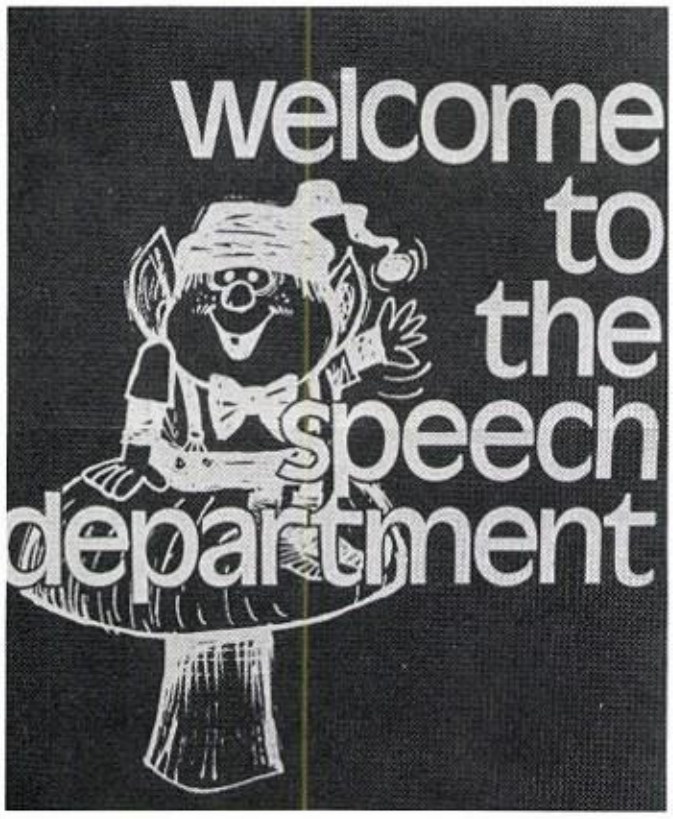
The purposes of the Art Club are to share a common interest in the visual arts field, to extend each individual's cultural awareness, to make charitable use of abilities through service projects, and to improve artistic skills.

During the year, the Art Club visited galleries and exhibits, sponsored a booth at the Halloween happening, and repainted the CHS sign.

Gina Nichols paints the face of a trick-or-treater at the Art Club booth during the Halloween happening.



Speech Club members rarely have a free Saturday because they are competing from sunup to sundown. The members compete in various categories such as poetry, prose, duet acting, humorous, dramatic, original oratory, debate, cross examination, impromptu, and an occasional improvisation and lip sinc. The members are definitely talented!

The officers of Speech Club are: President, Freddie Toledo; Vice President, Brett Palvadore; Secretary, Krystal Stokes; Treasurer, Barbara Blatzheim; Scrapbook, Julie Blume; Parliamentarian, Nicki Marcott. Don Lacy sponsors this active group. The Speech Club has done well at the tournaments as well as conducted a successful tournament of their own.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The officers of the Student Council are Joe Hancock, President; Monty Moore, Treasurer; Jennifer Clark, Corresponding Secretary; Ronay Payne, Recording Secretary; Cherie McRoberts, Vice President; Lisa Pickens, Parliamentarian.

The Canyon High School Student Council was probably the best and the strongest it has been in years. This year the Student Council won Presidency at a district convention. They used an ALOHA theme for the 1986-87 school year. ALOHA stands for Actively Leading Others to Higher Achievement, which is the basic purpose of Student Council.

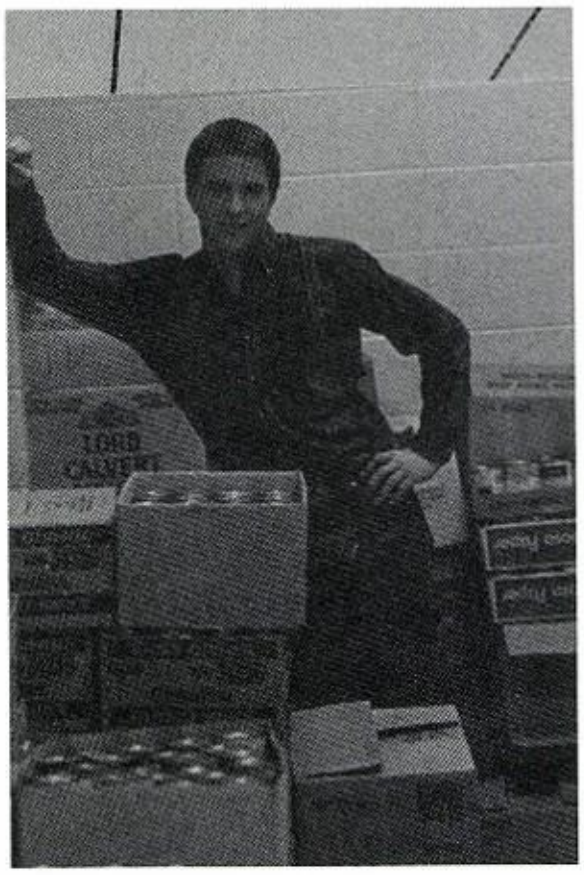
AWESOME ALOHA ACCELERATES

The Halloween Happening proved to be successful and the perfect place for Student Council members to hide their true identities in a masquerade of costumes.



Monty Moore stands trapped within 6,209 pounds of food collected in the canned food drive.

Glennie Green, Lisa Parrott, and Ronay Payne jam as they celebrate the receiving of the President position in the District I Conference.

Besides contributing to the needy and promoting safety consciousness, the Student Council worked to improve the attitudes of the students and faculty and to generate a greater sense of school spirit. They did this with the Halloween Happening, the Winning Wall, acknowledging students' birthdays, sponsoring the multimedia production, the traditional Homecoming, spirit week, and the candlelight pep rally. Miss Swauger and the Student Council put many hours into making the 1986-87 school year the best school year ever.

KEY CLUB

Renee Moyer, Beth Pittman, Angie Johnson. Third row: Kenny Bagley, Kim Barnhart, Leslie Bagley, Julie Williams, Heather Smith, Sarah Ford, Yv
Stocker, Pilar Diaz, Dawn Smith, Mr. Stocker. Back row: Mickael Dolle, Trisha Bargerstock, Melissa Shelly, Jennifer Clark, Lori Hollabough, Andy Millig
Freddy Toledo, Terry Tucker.

The Key Club is a service organization that is affilliated with t Kiwanis Club. The members have participated in many service p jects. This summer they helped with Meals on Wheels, worked the c cession stand at Little League games, served food for the S quicentennial Wagon Train, and helped with the Little Olympics. Th began the year with a 'get acquainted' dance to raise money for T Canyon Community Family Service. The Clubbers collected cann food for the Food Bank at Thanksgiving. As a seasonal service, th delivered paper turkeys at Thanksgiving and Christmas trees Christmas to the Canyon Nursing Home. The members gave balloo to the children during the Art Fair at the mall. The Key Club membe have a great time doing these and many other service projects and tending a district convention. They get to meet new people and fe good about themselves for helping others.

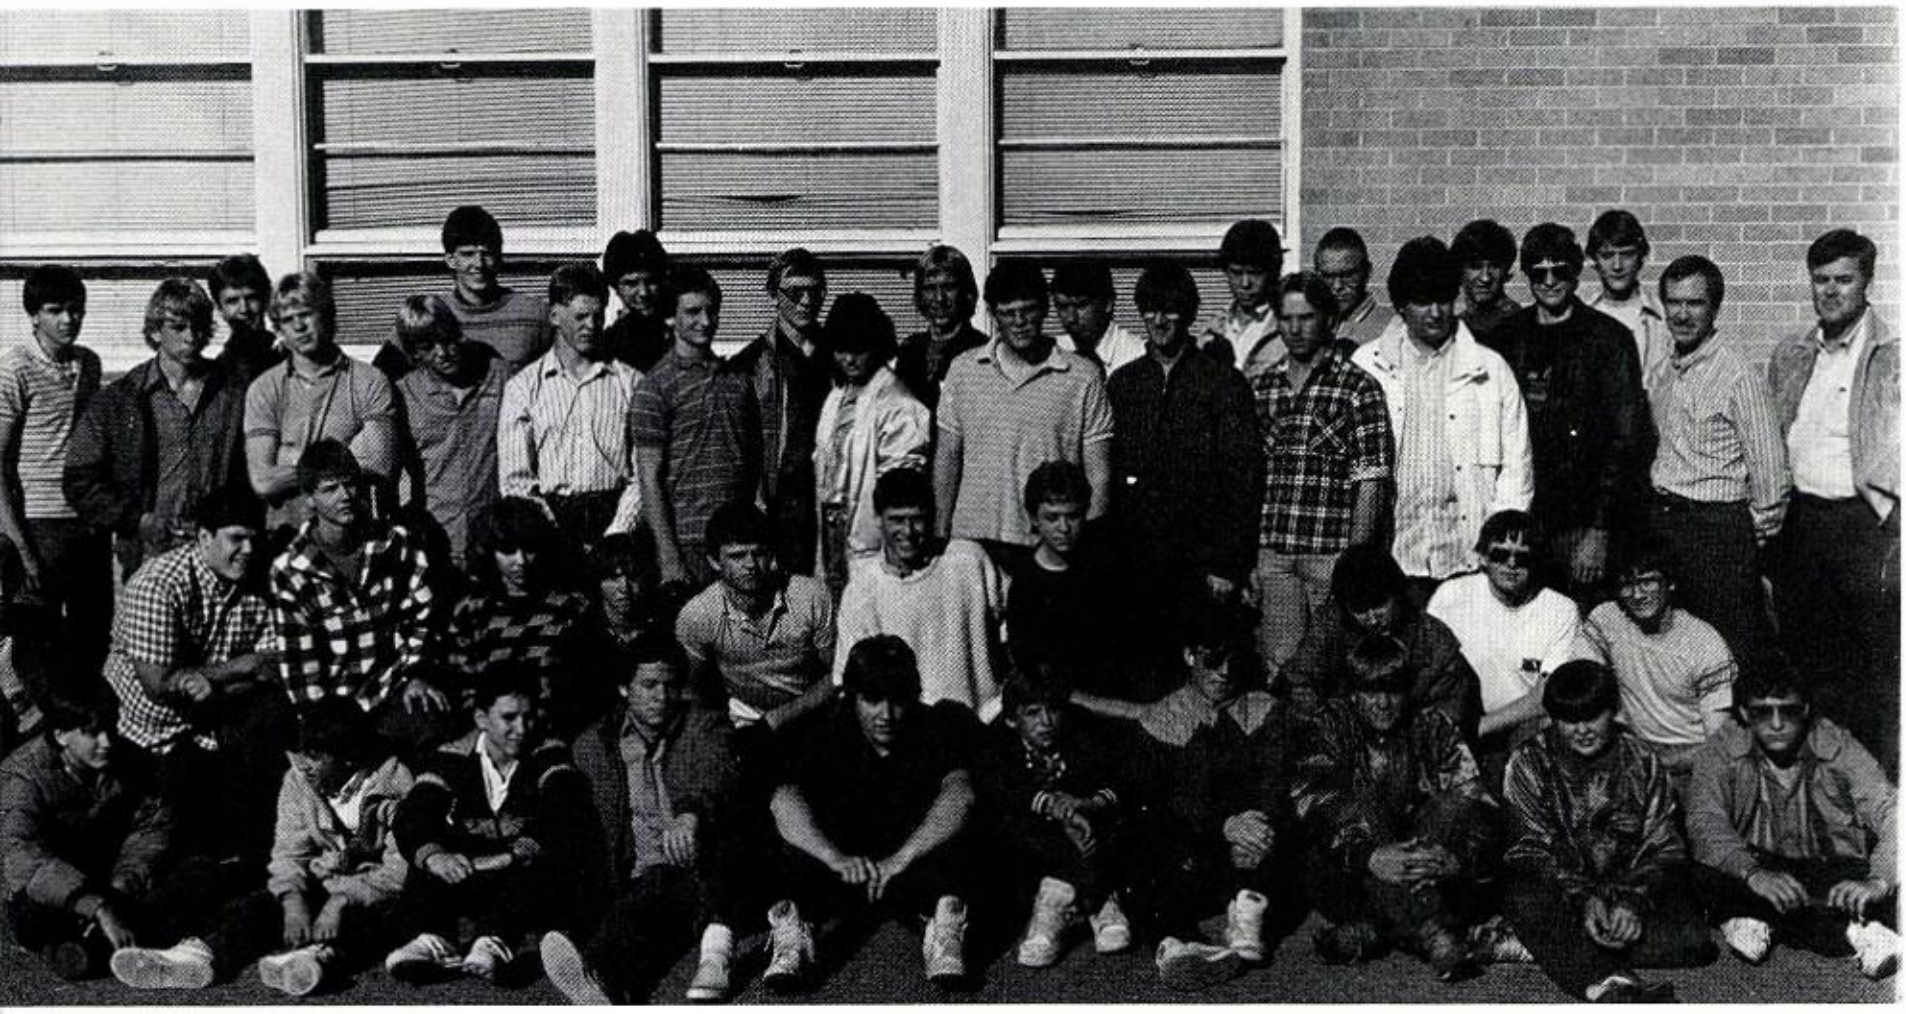
INDUSTRIAL ARTS



ck row: Daron McBee, Taylor Suffield, Shane Dressler, Mark Pinkerton, Mike Klinger, Mike Blanchard, Jerrod McCollum, Mike Montgomery, Jason lette, Al Knauth. Middle row: Scott Smith, Kenny Bagley, Jimmy Grimland, Mark Maxwell, Jason Trollander, Lin Bourn, Melissa Woods, John berts, Richard Bonner, Bobby Crone, Monte Fulkerson, Jason Clifton, Rodney Boyer (Sponsor), David McCampbell (Sponsor). Kneeling: Robert Croskey, Casey Hefner, Shane Dressler, Stacy Kimbelin, John Sperline, Kent Colley, Jeff McGillery, Dustin Ross, Tony Martin, Tim Cox, David gins. Front row: Jeff Morris, Brian Winters, Brad Carroll, Larry Stephens, Wade Moore, Jeff Sims, Jake Linsey, Lance Howard, J. W. Carnes, Curtis ming.

The Industrial Arts Club provides opportunities for those interested in woodworking. They often contributed their spare time to work on projects that went to regional competition held at West Texas State University. The members also sold candy to raise money for a ski trip to New Mexico. These activities along with the enthusiasm of the members help to promote industrial arts.

ORGANIZATIONS IN ACTION

This year's contest play is The Miracle Worker. This talented group travels and competes around the area. Helen Keller is played by Nicki Jay; Mr. Keller is played by Wade Miller, and Mrs. Keller (Kate) is Ginger Sauer. James is portrayed by Clay Jackson, while Annie Sullivan is played by Melodie Morgan. The cast put in many long hours to make this a successful endeavor.

This year members of the CHS Art Department participated and won awards in the Scholastic Art Award competition. Awards given were certificates of merit, gold keys, and the highest award, the Hallmark. There is no doubt, these CHS participants made outstanding achievements.

The new members of the Soaring Wings staff are: David Thomason, Ronetta Ruse, and Lesa Svensson.

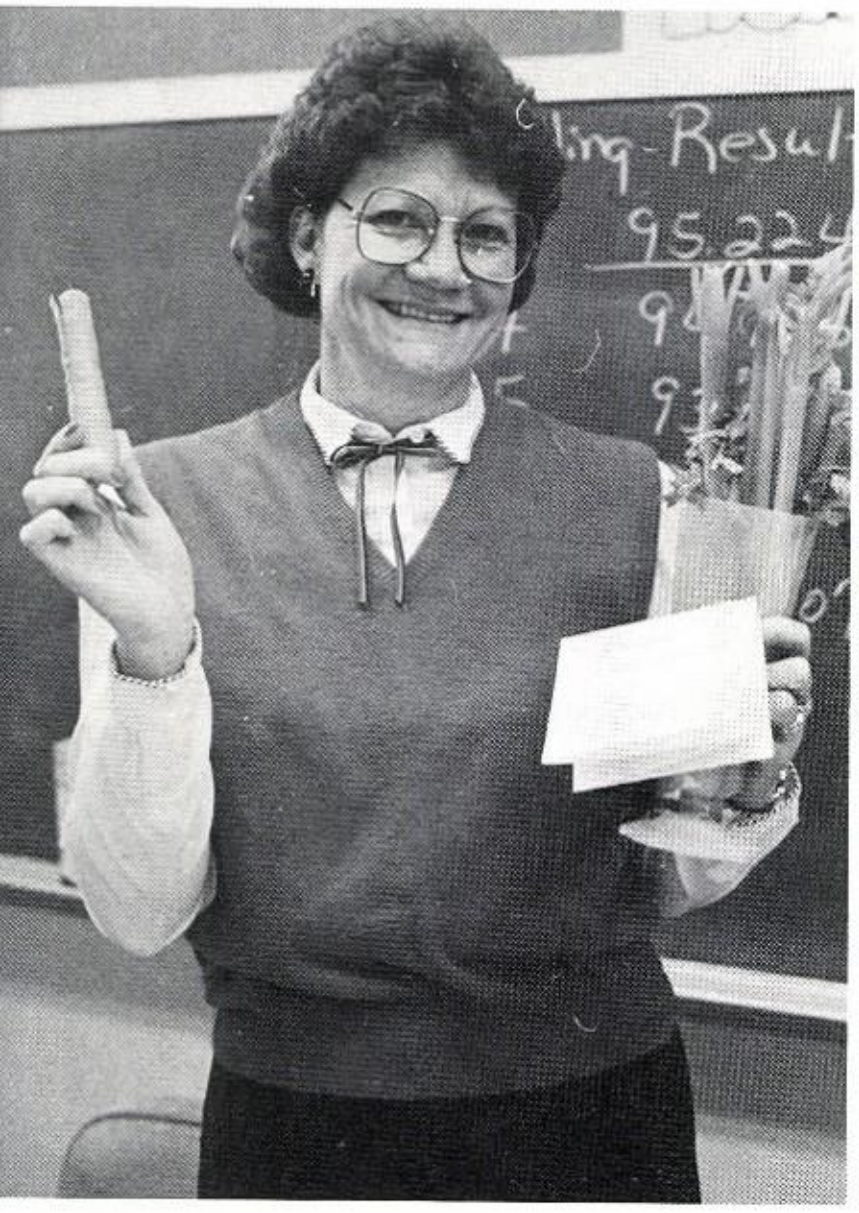
MORE STUDENT LIFE . . .



1) Mrs. Svensson smiles as she receives a bouquet of celery from her secret pal. 2) I thought you were going to wear that dress next week! 3) Newspaper editors have disagreements, too! 4) Janice, Brittany, Karen, and Gwynne flash their smiles.

CURIOUS SAVAGE

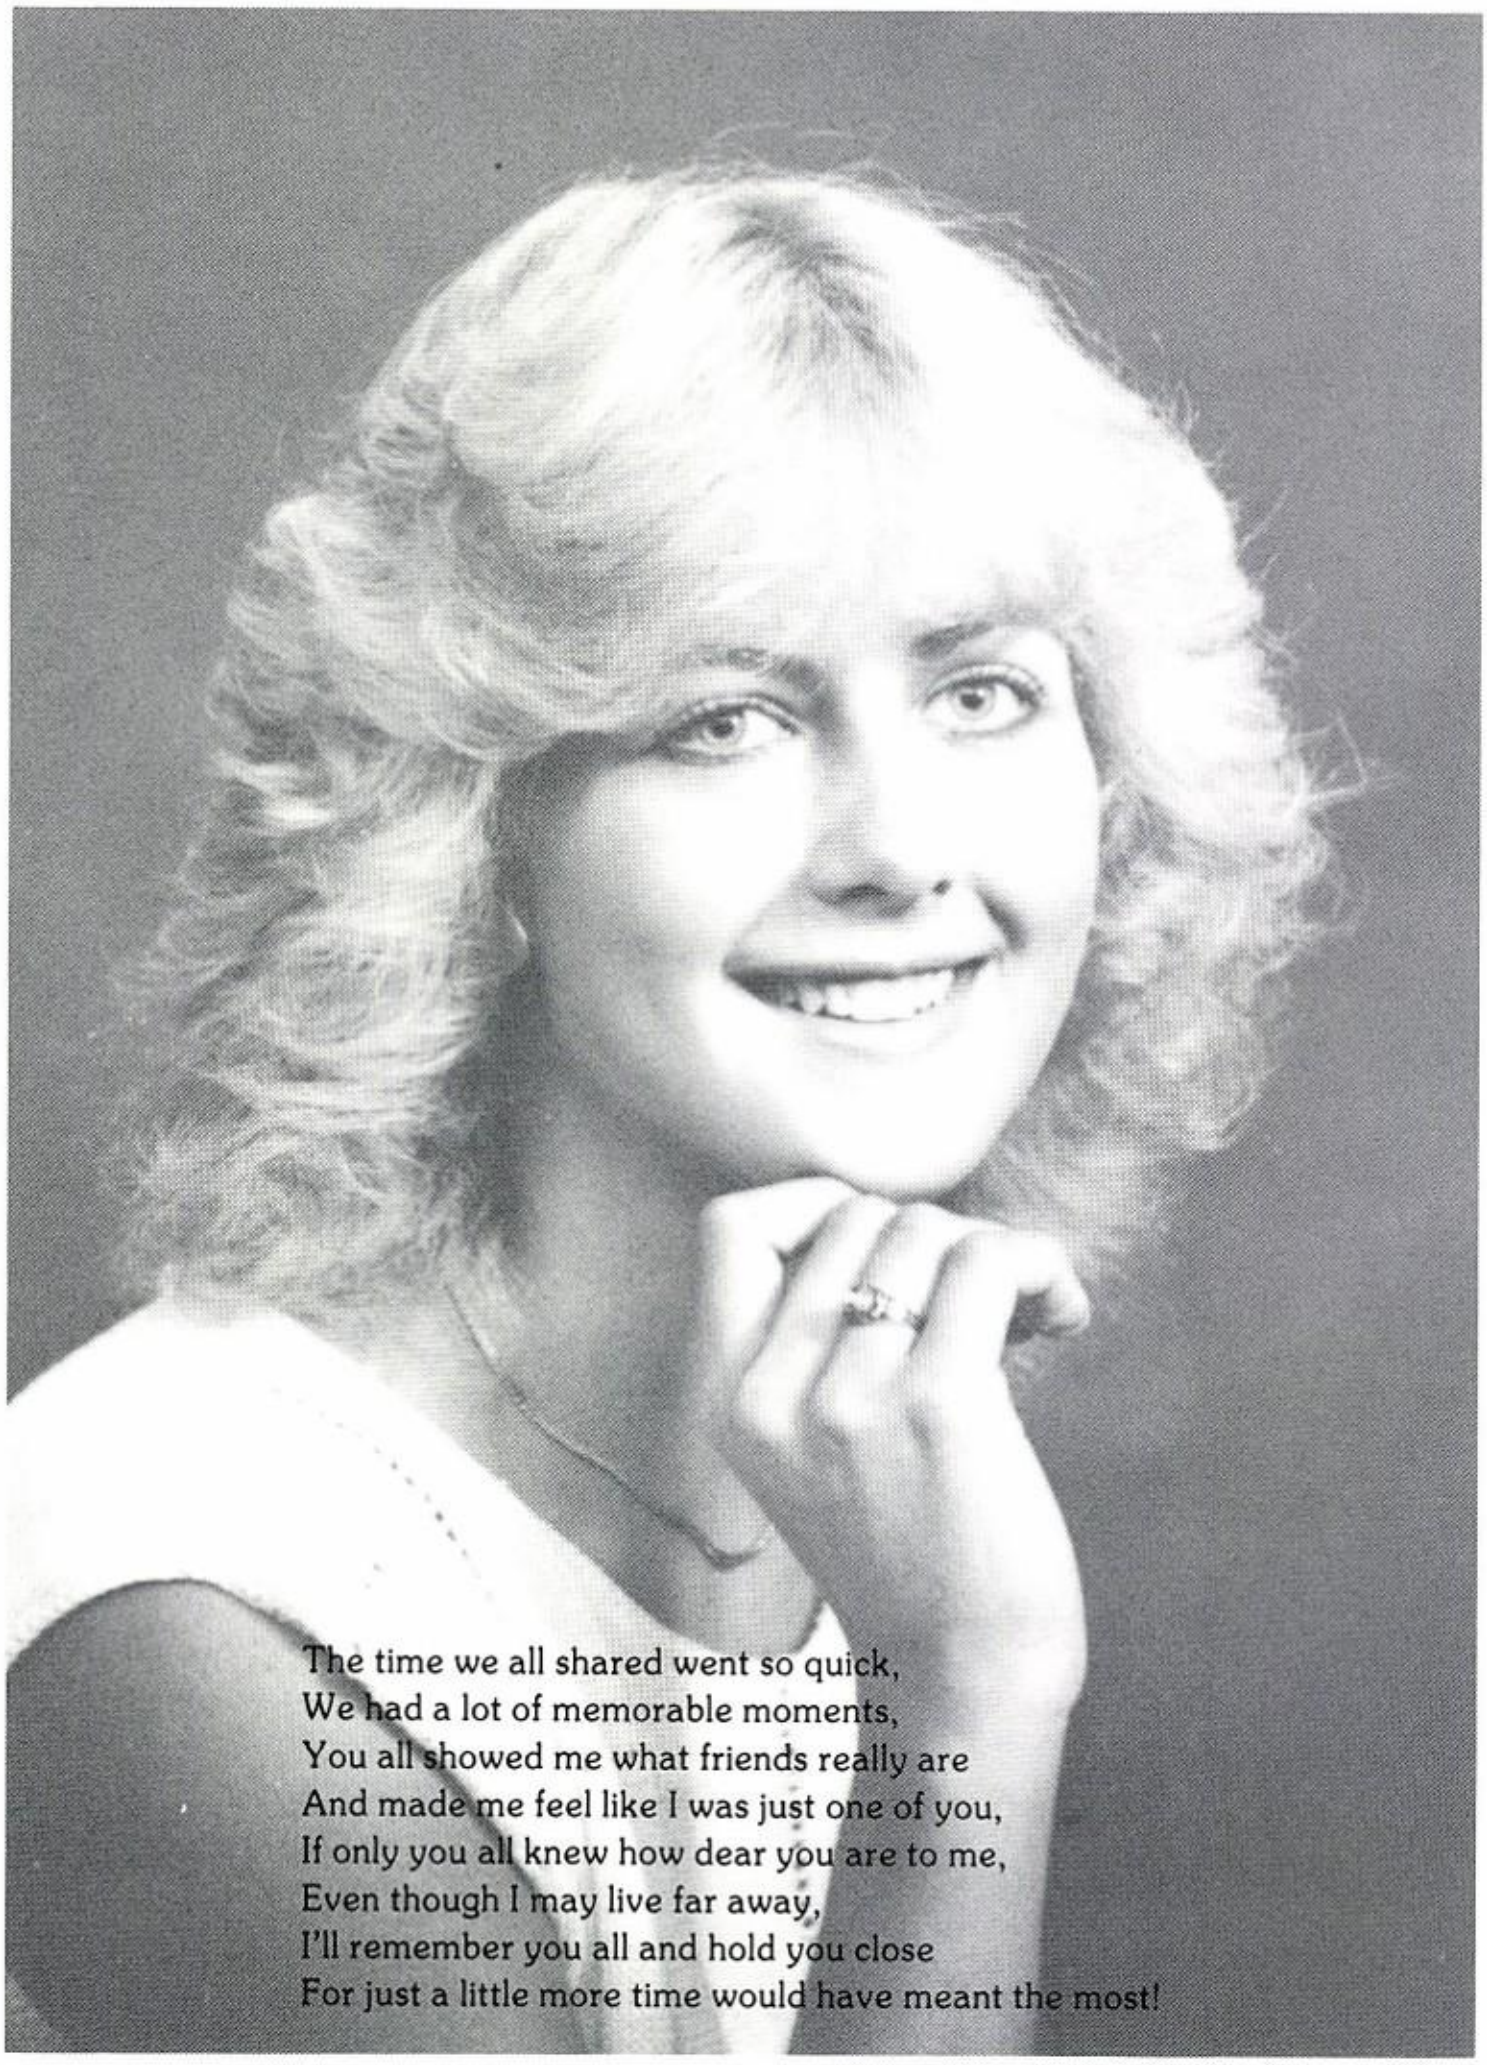
On Valentine's weekend many hearts were touched by the performance of the all-school play, Curious Savage.

The crowd cheered as Ginger Sauer played the role of Mrs. Savage, an elderly lady who had been admitted to an insane asylum for giving away money. The audience raged at the characters of a wicked stepdaughter, played excellently by Jenny Stevens; a crooked senator, performed by Jerry Huff; and a wimpy judge, played by Rob Stevens. Credit must be given to those who characterized the roles of Mrs. Savage's companions in the asylum. Dendee Hutcherson shocked the audience with her performance of a quiet but very negative "Mrs. Patty." Gary Solomon kept the audience tuned with his role as a violinist. Barbara Blatzheim showed her sweet heart in the role of the motherly Florence. Sarah Ford brought laughter to the crowd in the part of "Fairy" and Wade Miller captured the audience's attention as a shy pianist who had been wounded in the soul during the war. Gwynne Labrie played the role of his wife, who was a nurse at the asylum. Gwynne's performance was very heartwarming as she saved the day at the conclusion of the show with the help of Brent Morgan, who played the doctor.

After the Saturday night performance, a valentine's dance rattled the walls of the commons. The hand check turned out to say that the cast did a superb job!

IN MEMORY



The time we all shared went so quick,
We had a lot of memorable moments,
You all showed me what friends really are
And made me feel like I was just one of you,
If only you all knew how dear you are to me,
Even though I may live far away,
I'll remember you all and hold you close
For just a little more time would have meant the most!

Kristie,
Thank you for being such a nice friend and fellow "flagett"! I hope that you have had a fun jr. year, but I can tell you now that your sr. year will be awesome!
Remember all the band trips, strange things we did, and various guys that the girls have gawked at! Hopefully, I'll see you next year when I come to visit! Have a great summer!

Sr. '87

I love ya,

Let's check in on each other
Can't wait to see you all
No joking but I'm so proud of you all for getting through this year. I seriously cannot believe we're seniors now. What a crazy ride it's been. I'm so excited to see what you all do next & where you go to college. Remember to stay in touch & keep in contact.
Don't forget to study hard & enjoy your last year of high school.
Love you all so much!

Kim,
I'm really not sure what to write. I'm sorry
we've never had any classes together because you seem like you're a lot of fun. Good luck
In the Future!
Love,
Amy Clabon

Kimberlee,

I'm really glad that we had Geography together because we got to be closer friends. I hope you know I consider you my partying buddy because everytime I go to a party, you're there. And we do have alot of fun!! You better call me this summer so we can go party. Now that you have my number, you have no excuse not to call. I really appreciate you being there when I needed you to listen to my problems about Shane! You have such a great personality, don't ever change. I can always count on you went I'm depressed for a good laugh!!

P.S. Lets this party this summer! Remember theme P.A.R.T.Y.

Love Ya Babe!

Kimberlee,

Hey Baby its been great watching you chase Jeff Ray around this year. I hope you and Jeff get married some day. You have a great personality. I love being around you. I hope you never change the way you are. Some day you'll find ya a good-lookin man, and fall deeply in love. Hang in there

Love you,

Diamond Dave

Kim,

Well it looks like we've hit the end the end of the ole high school road. It will be alot different in college without you there to have and have some fun with. It's going to be uncool not to have someone there to make you feel good. I know we've had our differences but its never been because of you. (its usually been (Diamonds dickead) We loved being your friend. It's been fun going to school with you. I hope in the future we can become better friends!! Kim, I hope in the future that things will turn out for the best for you, and I hope you find what you're looking for. Best of Luck as a RA.

to possibly have another summer
and two semesters
Love
Amy

Jami Heppard has signed your yearbook so you can look back on this year and remember this year with teary eyes. We've been thru so much together this year. I want you to think about all of the problems, failed tests, broken ♡'s and the Great Parties with love in your heart for all of the goods + bads! Enough of this B.S. I'm really glad we've become such great friends this year + as I've said so many times before - you're really someone special to me - we'd better be friends next year OR I'll come hunt you down + kick your a__! Have a great summer! Maybe I'll see you at some super party this summer! Hope so. Call me. We'll do lunch! (655-1482)

Love Ya-

Jami

P.S. This sub never washes her hair!

Kimberlee,

I'm glad you were in my Geography class - You livened things up - Have a great summer! Just think 1 more year and we're through! Jeff won't be here next year - How sad - Be careful. -

Love,

Kimberlee,

Can you believe the year is over? It flew by! I'm glad to miss you next year. I would have anybody to make me laugh like you did. You are so funny - and you bring many smiles to a lot of people. I'll miss the bus trips and stealing Valentine hearts in Taco Villa. 1111 That was a blast !!! I hope I see you this summer and next year when I come home! Keep in touch and have a super Sr. Year!

Love Ya!

Kim,

It was NICE getting ℗ Acquainted w/you this last Semester at School, You're a very outrageous chick. So don't Ever let anyone tell you different. Have a gREAt SR. yEAR and take-it-easy on the gorgeus "golf-pros" O.K.!?!

LOVE ya,

Bret

Kristie,

I really enjoyed having Child Dev. with you this year - even though those guys were so gross! You are a really sweet person and I know you'll accomplish a lot! Have a blast next year because it flies by!!!

Good Luck in all you do!

Love YA!

Cherie

Kim Werlee -

Gary Bale, its many over! I'm soo glad that I'm glad that we had a couple of classes together this year. Have a good summer! I hope you find that special guy & keep in touch this summer.
